

No Regret

After a dark wave of despair and grief
I got along to fight the day totally
And peacefully

It really got through me
That I had to find my recipe
There's still a lot to learn
For me finally

I don't know what I deserve
But I know I don't regret
So I will never forget
What I've become because of you

I am fallible I know but
I try hard to be a part

If you're afraid
You'll never learn to love
Just stay above (it all)
And stay involved
