

Nobody Screams

Being undisturbed and alone
Thinking 'bout to be in love
Thinking 'bout to be alone
I deceive myself

Every time I think about
Which choice I make
With or without you
I can make my fate

Isn't that what you want to?
That I pick my way
Straight forward and good
If there is no brake

Happy for a week, a month, a year
Wiping out my fear
Everything is so clear
When I oppress my fear

I earn a lot in return
Because I'm able to learn
How to behave
That is my concern

Keeping all the nice things
Even if it's hard
But there's still a place
To keep my own part

Nobody say "I love you"
Nobody speak it out
Nobody say "I love you"
Nobody seems to care

Nobody screams "I love you"
Nobody screams it out

Happy for a week, a month, a year
Wiping out my fear
Everything is so clear
When I oppress my fear

Nobody screams "I love you"
Nobody screams it out
Nobody screams "I love you"
Nobody seems to care
