

Soul Mates

Recognizing my heart beat in another
Standing together through our suffering
Only fate can decide where my heart resides

Alone in a slumber is our hallowed bliss
Moan with the thunder when lips do kiss
Never without you shall I spend my days
Even with death my love shall raise

Touch me, with you it's so much fun
Hold me, with the rising of the sun
Kiss me, our battle has just begun
Love me, you're my only one
My only one

A dream of you, is a wish come true
Drive me crazy, with the things you do
Never could I want another anymore
Even with poverty we could never be poor

Touch me, with you it's so much fun
Hold me, with the rising of the sun
Kiss me, our battle has just begun
Love me, you're my only one
My only one

Emptiness drives me when you're not around
Sitting and waiting for you to be found
Bringing yourself right back to me

Touch me, with you it's so much fun
Hold me, with the rising of the sun
Kiss me, our battle has just begun
Love me, you're my only one
My only one

Touch me, with you it's so much fun
Hold me, with the rising of the sun
Kiss me, our battle has just begun
Love me, you're my only one
My only one
