

Warriors

The dreaming land of confusion
Has no solution
It takes no sorrow from the world
It listen to the sound of the sword
Killing machines kill a lot
Of people, the city is hot

Warriors are stupid
Warriors are fools

Lambs cry, humans lie
You found the thing that cares
But nothing else prepares
The thing that's killing all
Throwing trash at the wall

Warriors are stupid
Warriors are fools
Flinging files to keep
Into the darkest deep
Warriors are fools
Taking illegal tools

The book of the world is not closed
Human fools aren't purposed
Killing time has come
To you in a disarm
"soldier, suck your blood!"
She yelled, did she not
